

EUROPEANMOBILITYWEEK

16-22 SEPTEMBER 2016

CHARTER 2016

We the undersigned hereby declare that we shall join in the EUROPEANMOBILITYWEEK starting on Friday 16 and ending on Thursday 22 September 2016 by:

- > Organising a week of activities, taking into account the 2016 focal theme 'Smart and sustainable mobility – an investment for Europe' under the call-to-action 'Smart mobility. Strong economy'.
- > Implementing at least one new permanent measure which contributes to modal transfer from the private car to an environmentally sound means of transport.

Where possible, at least one of these measures should be a permanent reallocation of road space in favour of walking, cycling or public transport (e.g. road closure, wider pavement, new cycle or bus lane, new traffic calming scheme, lower speed limit).

- > Organising a Car-Free Day, setting aside one or several areas that are reserved solely for pedestrians, cyclists and public transport for at least one whole day (i.e. 1 hour before to 1 hour after normal working hours).

This car-free day should preferably be held on Thursday 22 September 2016.

On behalf of the local authority of.....

Ms/Mr.....

Local authorities committing to all three of the above criteria will become 'golden participants', they are thus eligible to enter the EUROPEANMOBILITYWEEK Award scheme. Only local authorities located in following zones are eligible to apply: EU-28 Member States, candidate countries, potential candidate countries that are part of Stabilisation and Association Process (SAP), European Economic Area countries (EEA) and European Free Trade Area countries (EFTA). Permanent measures implemented earlier in 2016 are also eligible on condition that they are promoted or inaugurated during 2016 EUROPEANMOBILITYWEEK.

Smart mobility. Strong economy.
